LIVE AUCTION

LOT 1 CHAMPAGNE WISHES AND CAVIAR DREAMS WITH DOM PERIGNON

An evening tasting for 14 with multiple examples of the most famous of all Champagnes, Dom Pérignon, hosted by Champagne ambassador Victor Blanquart, including heavy hors d'oeuvres and culminating with a tasting of the rare Cognac, Hennessy Paradis

We begin our live auction with Champagne! If Dom Pérignon is the ultimate Champagne, this must be the ultimate tasting experience with Dom Perignon and Caviar.

Dom Pierre Pérignon was a humble monk and cellar master in the 17th century who longed to produce "the best wine in the world." In the early 20th Century, Moët et Chandon, owners of the abbey and vineyards where Dom Pérignon worked, paid tribute to his legacy by creating the region's first "prestige cuvée," a wine given extra care in its creation and extra aging in its maturation – Dom Pérignon is aged a minimum of 10 years before release. A legend was born, one that all major Champagne houses now emulate.

We celebrate the legend and the wine with this special evening led by Victor Blanquart of Moët Hennessy's Private Client group. Victor will conduct a fun tasting experience for you and 13 of your guests and share a wonderful selection of Dom Pérignon Champagnes paired with caviar and heavy hors d'oeuvres in an experience crafted especially for you. The evening culminates with a taste of one of the world's greatest and rarest Cognacs, Hennessy Paradis.

CONDITIONS

Certificate is valid until December 31, 2021. Tasting must be arranged for a weeknight.

LOT 2 CALIFORNIA'S FINEST REDS

Five 750 ml bottles of Cabernet Sauvignon and cab-dominant wines, one each of the following: 1986 Heitz Cellars "Martha's Vineyard" Cabernet Sauvignon, 1999 Shafer "Hillside Select", 2004 Joseph Phelps "Insignia" Red Wine, 2005 Colgin "IX Estate" Red Wine, and 2015 Hourglass Estate Cabernet Sauvignon

When it comes to California, and Napa Valley in particular, cabernet sauvignon is king. Cab is universally considered Napa's greatest variety and is especially notable for its age worthiness when produced with skill and care from classic terroir. In this beautiful collection, you have the full range of cabernet's greatness from world-class producers and encompassing a 30-year span of vintages.

The fully mature Heitz cabernet links one of the OG winemakers of Napa's post-prohibition renaissance with the vineyard that was certainly the valley's most famous in the 1980s when this was made. 1986 was a vintage prized for its balance and longevity (cab authority John Gilman thinks it will last until 2050) and this bottle will surely be exemplary. On a timeline, next up is Shafer's 1999 Hillside Select, another wine that, year after year is near the top in ratings of all California reds. Steven Tanzer writing in Vinous called this "an awesome wine," and rated it 95 points (and he's a conservative judge!).

Joseph Phelps Insignia was the first proprietary red "meritage" style blend and continues to be one of the great wines of Napa. Always cabernet dominant, the blend changes each year; 2004 was the first time Phelps produced Insignia entirely from estate fruit and it contains 72% cabernet. The 2005 Colgin IX Estate is also a red blend, and while it is only 64% cabernet, Robert Parker gave it 98 points and indicated it shows a strong cabernet pedigree. It has, he says, "Inky purple [color] with a provocative and profound bouquet of graphite, white flowers, cassis and blackberry as well as hints of coffee and chocolate.

And finally, to round out this extraordinary collection, we have a recent wine from Hourglass that was rated 95 points by the estimable Jeb Dunnuck – it's also 95% cabernet! All in all, this is a dazzling group of wines for any cabernet lover.

INCOMPARABLE SINE QUA NON

Four 750ml bottles of California's most elusive wine, Sine Qua Non. This lot includes one bottle each of the following: 2017 Syrah The Hated Hunter, 2017 Grenache, The Gorgeous Victim, 2018 Syrah ZIEH Harmonika and 2018 Profuga Grenache

We don't have to worry about hyperbole when writing about Sine Qua Non – it's impossible to overstate the uniqueness of this fabled Central Coast property. A winery with a track record like no other winery in the world, Manfred Krankl and his team make what may be the most incredible wines in the world.

Let's get down to basics: Manfred Krankl started his winery with a dream of making Rhône varietals, specifically syrah and grenache, in California's Central Coast. He succeeded beyond his or anyone else's wildest dreams and no longer makes headlines when he produces a 100-point wine; in fact, he makes a headline on the rare occasions he doesn't make a 100 point wine. In that regard, there's no news flash here – the Wine Advocate gave 100 points to each of these bottles: two perfect syrahs and two perfect grenaches, though each wine is actually a blend. It may be a blend of vineyards (the Profuga sourced grapes in four vineyards), or grapes (The Hated Hunter also includes small portions of Mourvèdre, petite sirah, grenache, petite mensang and viognier).

Details don't really matter: what matters is that four of the rarest wines on the planet are, virtually, before you and if you are the high bidder, you can make the virtual real and enjoy the wines at your leisure. Whether to press that bid button for these wines of excellent provenance should be an easy choice indeed.

LOT 7 PROGRESSIVE DINING

A progressive dinner for 8 people, with one course at each of the four restaurants represented in this year's Farm to Fork brunch: Justin Flit's Navé, Brian Nasajon's Beaker & Gray, Niven Patel's Mamey and Michael Schwartz's Tigertail + Mary. Dinner includes wine pairings and a limo to take you between the restaurants

Here's the perfect way to continue the party begun at Farm to Fork – a dinner in which each of our chefs offers one course highlighting the spirit of his restaurant. Chef Justin Flit shares Navé's seafood-themed menu; chef Brian Nasajon shows off Beaker & Gray's award-winning emphasis on food that is inventive, playful and globally-inspired; chef Niven Patel's Mamey is a wildly successful fusion of Caribbean and Asian inspirations; and Michael Schwartz's Tigertail + Mary is a hard-to-pin-down evocation of Coconut Grove's bohemian vibe and tropical ingredients.

Each of our chefs celebrates local ingredients every day, and here's your chance to join in the celebration with one course at each restaurant and a chef-selected wine pairing to show it off. LOT 8 ON THE PINOT FRONTIER – A TRIP TO WILLAMETTE VALLEY

Roundtrip air to Portland on JetBlue, two nights hotel in wine country and VIP tours and tastings at three of the most important boutique wineries in the Bethel Heights Vineyard, Cristom Vineyards and Kelley Fox Wines. This lot also includes two bottles of wine, a pinot noir from Kelley Fox and a pinot noir from Bethel Heights, just to get you in the mood

For lovers of pinot noir, Oregon continues to be the frontier of excellence, producing world class wines that dazzle the critics. By way of example, the latest release of five wines from Kelley Fox averaged 96 points (they were the highest rated Oregon pinots in a recent roundup in Vinous Magazine). Kelley, who is one of Oregon's leading champions of biodynamic viticulture, will share some of her secrets with you on this trip that will also take you to pioneering winery Bethel Heights in Eola-Amity Hills. Founded in 1977, Bethel Heights is one of the OG pinot producers in the Willamette Valley and consistently garners ratings in the 90's as well.

For a third pinot (and chardonnay) experience on your trip, Cristom Vineyards will provide a two-hour VIP eco-tour of their lower vineyards followed by a tasting of 6 Cristom wines in their vineyard pavilion. This tour goes into their biodynamic farming principles and allows for a deeper understanding of effects of soil, topography and all the other elements that make a great vineyard.

With these three boutique producers, you will get not only insights into outstanding pinot noir but chardonnay as well – these wineries are equally famous for both varieties.

The Willamette Valley is less than an hour away from Portland, so we'll arrange two-nights lodging for you in the Valley and invite you to explore this stunning region to your heart's content. You can extend your stay simply by extending the hotel at your own expense – there is so much to see in Willamette, so much incredible wine to discover with such welcoming people. Napa and Sonoma are well established – Oregon is where you can still make palate-pleasing discoveries, making this a trip not to be missed!

YOU WON'T BE BORED AT BORA BORA

A bit of Tahitian elegance comes to South Florida with a "small" Bora Bora Cabana at the Seminole Hard Rock Hotel & Casino for up to 10 guests including a $500 food and beverage gift certificate. May be redeemed Monday – Thursday Only

The Miami Herald perhaps said it best when an article noted that, "we are obsessed with the Bora Bora experience, where you rent a 'cabana' for day use. These are 'cabanas' in the sense that the (Hard Rock) guitar is a 'hotel' - which is to say not at all, because both are SO MUCH MORE than we ever could have hoped for."

Forget all your preconceptions about what a cabana is, because your preconceptions surely do not include room for 10 people, a private plunge pool, tinkling waterfalls and butler service. But all this and more is part of the Hard Rock's Tahiti translation – this is THE spot for a stunning weekday getaway with nine friends!

Valid Monday – Thursday only.

BEAUTIFUL BAROLO

Three 750ml bottles of Barolo: 1 each of Gaja Conteisa Cerequio Gromis, Clerico Pajana and Ca' dei Gancia Cannubi, all from the stunning 1990 vintage

Barolo is prized as a wine that needs time to develop but that, give the necessary time, conjures subtle and long-lasting nuances of tar and roses (the classic descriptors) but also savory notes of leather, meat, herbs and an indefinable elegance. These three bottles not only represent three of the greatest of all producers and vineyards in this prized Piemonte region, but also come with impeccable provenance. Perfectly stored, they have had 30 years of slow evolution to develop all the nuances for which Barolo is prized. This is quite simply the best of the best.

LOT 16

A SILVER OAK HORIZONTAL

Five 750ml bottles of Silver Oak Napa Valley cabernet sauvignon: 1 each from 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012

Silver Oak is a winery that always wanted to do just one thing and do it as well as possible: make cabernet sauvignon. Ray Twomey Duncan, a Colorado entrepreneur who began investing in California vineyards in the late 1960s, and Justin Meyer, a Christian Brothers-trained winemaker, co-founded Silver Oak out of a Napa Valley dairy barn in 1972, producing only 1,000 cases of their inaugural vintage. They never wavered from their dream that Silver Oak would only make one wine, a cabernet aged in American oak, but they did make two versions of it – the original wine from Napa and then another cab from Alexander Valley fruit in Sonoma.

These five bottles are all from the much smaller Napa vineyard and as Silver Oak prepares to celebrate its golden anniversary, these wines tell a story of vintage and commitment: five consecutive vintages of one of Napa's legendary wines. Silver Oak Napa is still hard to find, so we've done the hard work for you here with a gorgeous horizontal collection.

LOT 17 KISTLER

One magnum of Kistler 2018 Laguna Ridge Chardonnay and Three 750mL bottles of Kistler's top Cuvée Cathleen Chardonnay with one each from vintages 2011, 2012, 2013

Kistler is a magical world for many chardonnay lovers, certainly because of the extraordinary quality of its wines but also for its unexpected uniqueness. Kistler Vineyards describes itself as, "a single clone chardonnay house." One heritage Californian selection of chardonnay planted across 15 vineyards, from Carneros to Sonoma Valley, to the Russian River Valley and Sonoma Coast. From those sites they produce 11 vineyard-designate chardonnays. Why? Because Kistler is wholly dedicated to the ideal of wines of site. It's an unparalleled approach in the new world.

In this lot you have the best that Kistler has to offer (which is saying a lot): A magnum of the stunning Laguna Ridge Chardonnay from 2018 and then a chance to really get down and taste what all the fuss is about: a three-vintage horizontal of the winery's top wine, Cuvée Cathleen, from a single, tiny block on the original Kistler Vineyard, from 2011, 2012 and 2013. For most New World chardonnays, a bottle at 10 years of age would be well past its peak. For Kistler, these are just beginning to come into their own, and now for the right bid, these can be your own, too.

CONDITIONS

As is. No refunds, exchanges or returns.

LOT 18 HALF A CENTURY OF REMARKABLE RIOJA

Five 750 ml bottles of mature Rioja, including one each of the following: 1954 Bodegas Fuenmayor Rioja; 1968 La Rioja Alta Rioja Reserva 904; 2005 Marques de Murrieta Rioja Castillo Ygay Gran Reserva Especial; and two bottles of 2001 La Rioja Alta Gran Reserva 904

Rioja, that most special place for growing and vinifying the tempranillo grape, holds a very special place for many wine lovers because many of the wines are aged for long periods by the Bodegas before they are released. Thus, aged Rioja is nothing new, but wines with this amount of age are.

Imagine – this lot includes a bottle that is nearly 70 years old, and another from one of the greatest producers in the region that is more than 50 years old. By this reckoning the 2001 La Rioja Alta 904 (the bodega's top wine) is but a youngster and the 2005 Castillo Ygay Grand Reserva Especial is in the prime of its youth, not to mention one of the greatest wines produced in Spain.

If you love Rioja, this is a must-have collection of superb bottles, kept in pristine condition and ready to enjoy tonight...if you are the high bidder.
